

The V4 Humanities Education for the Climate. Diagnoses – Best Practices – Recommendations [HEC]

Interdisciplinary Center of Humanist Education Research University of Silesia in Katowice

International Scientific Conference within the project The V4 Humanities Education for the Climate.
Diagnoses – Best Practices – Recommendations [HEC]

„Educational Projects for Ecology”
(23–24.09.2021)
Katowice

23.09.2021

9:00-9:30 Welcoming conference participants: prof. dr hab. Bernadeta Niesporek-Szamburska (coordinator of the project HEC)

Conference opening: dr hab. Anna Kaluża prof. UŚ, Vice-Dean of the Faculty of Humanities for Education and Students at the University of Silesia

Guest speeches:

dr Stanisław Gawłowski (Chairman of the Senate Extraordinary Climate Committee RP)

prof. dr hab. Wiesław Banyś (Vice-chairman of the Central Council of Science and Higher Education, Spokesman for the Conference of Rectors of Academic Schools in Poland)

9:30-10:50 Goals, tasks, possibilities of ecological education dr Magdalena Budziszewska (University of Warsaw) What do we need climate education for and how to introduce it into schools' and universities' perspectives?

dr Agnieszka Kozłowska (University of Adam Mickiewicz in Poznań) Environmental education and education policy - the presence of environmental education in strategic development documents at the local and national level and their relationship with the core curriculum of general education mgr Marta Koreniecka (University of Białystok) Education for balanced development in higher education. Case Study of the University of Białystok prof. dr hab. Piotr Skubała (University of Silesia in Katowice) Decalogue of environmental education trainer

10:50-11:20 Discussion

The project is co-financed by the Governments of Czechia, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia through Visegrad Grants from International *Visegrad Fund. The mission of the fund is to advance ideas for sustainable regional cooperation in Central Europe

This project was made possible through Strategic Grant No. 22020071 from the International Visegrad Fund.*

The V4 Humanities Education for the Climate. Diagnoses – Best Practices – Recommendations [HEC]

11:20-12:20 The place of environmental education in university education of the humanities

dr hab. Maciej Michalski, prof. UG (University of Gdansk) The Ecological Crisis as a Cognitive Challenge in Education

prof. dr hab. Małgorzata Kita (University of Silesia in Katowice) Knowledge and communication about climate changes as a component of cultural capital of a humanities graduates (an outline)

dr Zuzana Obertová (Comenius University in Bratislava) Polish and Slovak climate fiction. Comparative literature workshop for university students

12:20-12:40 Discussion

12:40-14:00 Engaging education - institutions, programs, ideas in the service of ecology mgr Artur Wiczorek (National Center for Climate Change) At the meeting point of activism and education: The educational role of climate movements. Case study of Silesian Climate Movement

dr hab. Olga Przybyła, prof. UŚ (University of Silesia in Katowice) Pro-ecological activity by Center for Citizenship Education

dr Maja Głowacka, dr Bogdan Ogródnik (Living Education Laboratory) A storytelling in environmental education. Theoretical basis and storytelling practice during outdoor workshops with children and families

dr Magdalena Ochwat (University of Silesia in Katowice) „Fashionable wife” or responsible consumer. Humanities zero waste

14:00-14:20 Discussion

14:20-15:00 Break

15:00-16:20 Ecological education of the youngest prof. dr hab. Bernadeta Niesporek-Szamburska (University of Silesia in Katowice) Pro-climatic episodes in children's narratives about the future dr hab. Alina Budniak, prof. UŚ (University of Silesia in Katowice) Ecological education of younger children - yes! But what?

mgr Jakub Gontarek (National Center for Climate Change) "Green Kindergarten" - how to build a commitment-oriented education program

dr Magdalena Christ (University of Silesia in Katowice) Forest kindergartens in Poland and worldwide as an example of pro-ecological activities

The project is co-financed by the Governments of Czechia, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia through Visegrad Grants from International *Visegrad Fund. The mission of the fund is to advance ideas for sustainable regional cooperation in Central Europe

This project was made possible through Strategic Grant No. 22020071 from the International Visegrad Fund.*

The V4 Humanities Education for the Climate. Diagnoses – Best Practices – Recommendations [HEC]

16:20-16:40 Discussion

The end of the first day of the meeting

24.09.2021

9:00-10:10 Humanistic environmental education at school?

dr Anna Guzy, dr Magdalena Ochwat (University of Silesia in Katowice) Make the world a better place! How do Polish teachers perceive their impact on a climate change?

dr hab. Małgorzata Gajak-Toczek, prof. UŁ (University of Lodz) Ecological issues during Polish language lessons at high school. Selected aspects mgr Dorota Konieczny-Simela (I Secondary School named after Tadeusz Kościuszko in Myslowice) How to promote pro-ecological activities at school wisely?

dr Justyna Budzik (University of Silesia in Katowice) Film tourism and ecological education. Ideas for discussions and trips

10:10 – 10:40 Discussion

10:40-11:20 Glottodidactics towards the challenges of environmental education dr Ewa Półtorak (University of Silesia in Katowice) Using the action-oriented approach in pro-ecological attitude training in the foreign language teaching-learning process

dr Maria Waclawek (University of Silesia in Katowice) Ecology as a lever of trade? Advertising during Polish lessons (as a foreign language)

11:20-11-30 Discussion

11:30-12:30 Ecophones of teachers and educators. Towards school practice part 1.

dr hab. Kordian Bakula, prof. UW (University of Wrocław) On cognitive and ethical blindness. Secular natural humanities in Polish language lessons (The World and the Blind Girl of Adolf Dygasiński)

mgr Magdalena Paprotny-Lech (University of Silesia in Katowice) Cybernetics and ecology – loops of relations between Schulz and Onak dr hab. Danuta Krzyżyk, prof. UŚ (University of Silesia in Katowice) In the land of green orthography - selected issues

The project is co-financed by the Governments of Czechia, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia through Visegrad Grants from International *Visegrad Fund. The mission of the fund is to advance ideas for sustainable regional cooperation in Central Europe

This project was made possible through Strategic Grant No. 22020071 from the International Visegrad Fund.*

The V4 Humanities Education for the Climate. Diagnoses – Best Practices – Recommendations [HEC]

12:30-12:45 Discussion

12:45-13:45 Ecophones of teachers and educators. Towards school practice part 2.

mgr Katarzyna Krulicka (Primary School No. 31 in Zabrze) I'm thinking green – the ideas for ecoPolish lessons dr hab. Małgorzata Wójcik-Dudek, prof. UŚ (University of Silesia in Katowice) Closer to the ground. Reading the concrete mgr Justyna Szewczyk (Primary School No. 1 named after Janusz Korczak in Pawłowice) Students' ecological reflections while reading the poem by Wisława Szymborska „W zatrząsieniu”

13:45-14:00 Discussion

Summary of the meeting

14:00-15:00 Break

15:00-17:30 Internal discussion panel with the participation of foreign project partners
The V4 Humanities Education for the Climate. Diagnoses – Best Practices – Recommendations: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica, Palacký University in Olomouc, Comenius University in Bratislava and National Polish School in Hungary

End of the conference

Please register for the event in advance by sending an e-mail to rejestracjaV4@us.edu.pl . In return, you will receive a link to the registration questionnaire and a link to the event. In case of any difficulties with registration, please contact us at: anna.guzy@us.edu.pl

The project is co-financed by the Governments of Czechia, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia through Visegrad Grants from International *Visegrad Fund. The mission of the fund is to advance ideas for sustainable regional cooperation in Central Europe

This project was made possible through Strategic Grant No. 22020071 from the International Visegrad Fund.*

